Period 5

Picnic and Proms on the Field

What are the Proms?

Original name: Promenade concerts

Age: More than 100 years old

Historical locations: London parks

Current location: Royal Albert Hall

Music: Orchestras and bands

Why are BBC Proms called Proms?

'Proms' is short for Promenade concerts – informal and inexpensive concerts with an opportunity for Promenaders ('Prommers') to stand and listen.

Picnic and Proms on the Field

On Friday 24 May each form will walk out to the field at the start of period 5 to have our final Jubilee celebration.

There will be:

- Music
- Ice cream vans
- Your form will sit together in your form area and share a picnic together

The success of your form picnic depends on your preparation. So use this PSHÉ session to create and agree your form group plan... (tutors this could be on a google doc that is shared on google classroom)

- What food are each of you going to bring? What would you like to share at your picnic? What will you sit on? Has anyone got picnic blankets/ rugs they could bring to share? Will you bring any games/ activities to do together in your form area on the field?
